

Summary

Place: Csapody István Természetiskola, Fertőújlak, Hungary

Date: 01-02.03.2014.

Main progress of the project LIFE11/NAT/HU/000926 in the past year:

- The technical implementation of the planned activities continues as scheduled, treatments started on the project area
- The main working equipments, infrastructures were purchased by most partners
- Testing methods to prevent M. foinea predation has started in Szeged Zoo
- The Agricultural Practices Plan and Monitoring Scheme was elaborated
- Inception Report was approved by EC
- Farmer and stakeholder meetings were held in Hungary and Slovakia in 2013
- Communication Plan for 2014 is ready
- The expedition to the African roosting sites of RFFs is underway
- Cooperative contracts were signed with BirdLife Ukraine and BirdLife Cyprus

List of Committee members/ beneficiary

- Dr. Gergő Halmos /MME
- György Dudás /BNPD
- László Tirják /KMNPD
- Lucia Deutschová/RPS
- Michal Deraj/SNC

Annex: signed forms of attendance (by the SC member or representative)